MEMORANDUM TO CHIEF, PERSONNEL DIVISION

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

In accordance with our telephone conversation this date the following information is furnished:

25X1A9a [REDACTED] was employed on a temporary basis for a period of sixty days as a teletype operator at the local wage rate of $2710.35 per annum at the [REDACTED] Mission on April 30, 1947. 25X1A6a

25X1A

25X1A9a Due to the unexpected absence of the regularly appointed teletype operators, it is necessary to extend employment of [REDACTED] 25X1A9a for another sixty days, or to employ on a similar basis another teletype operator. In view of the fact that [REDACTED] cannot be 25X1A9a employed permanently in [REDACTED] because her husband is also an employee at [REDACTED] it is recommended that permission be granted to employ another individual on this same basis whose papers are enroute from [REDACTED] for normal processing for a regular appointment. 25X1A8a 25X1A6a

25X1A6a

It is requested that permission be granted to employ this new applicant on a temporary basis for a period not to exceed ninety days pending a regular appointment.
